IV. After Activity Report

Project title :
"Cyber Watch: Empowering the Residents of Sitio Sampalukan in Media Literacy & Cybersecurity"

Objectives

1. To develop the spirit of volunteerism in caring for others

2. To pursue active involvement of students, faculty members, administrator and non-teaching personnel in their area of expertise

3. To conduct sustainable programs and services responsive to the needs, conditions, challenges and opportunities in the area of H.E.L.P.E.R.S

Summary of activities

The team successfully conducted a seminar on basic cybersecurity, focusing on practical strategies to stay safe online. Participants were introduced to essential concepts such as protecting personal information, recognizing online threats, and practicing safe browsing habits. This activity aimed to raise awareness and strengthen digital safety among attendees.

In addition, a seminar on basic media and information literacy was carried out. This session emphasized the importance of critically evaluating information sources, identifying misinformation, and developing responsible media consumption habits. By equipping participants with these skills, the seminar promoted informed decision-making and responsible engagement in the digital space.

Awareness & Education:

Engagement and Participation:

We tried to be more relatable and casual with the participants and tried our best to get them to raise their question on the topic but i think we made our message clear
